we are people.

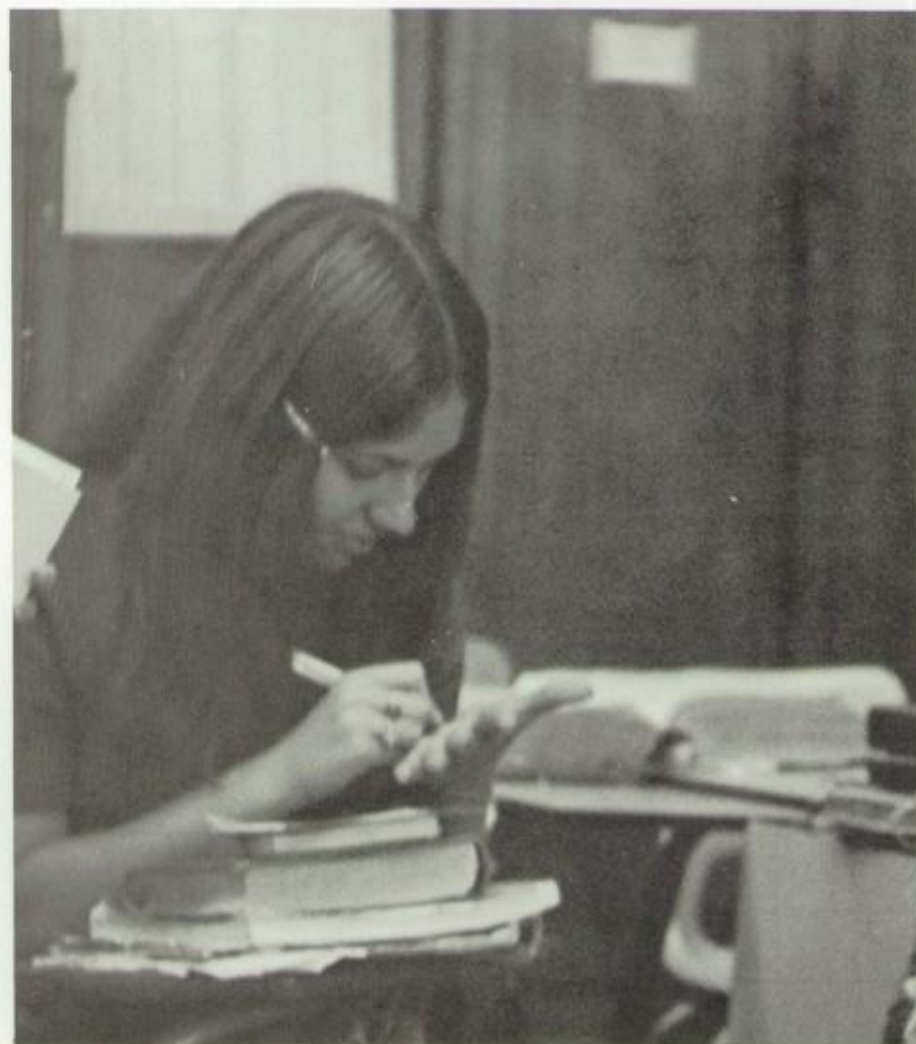

together

or alone, we are here.

we have faults;

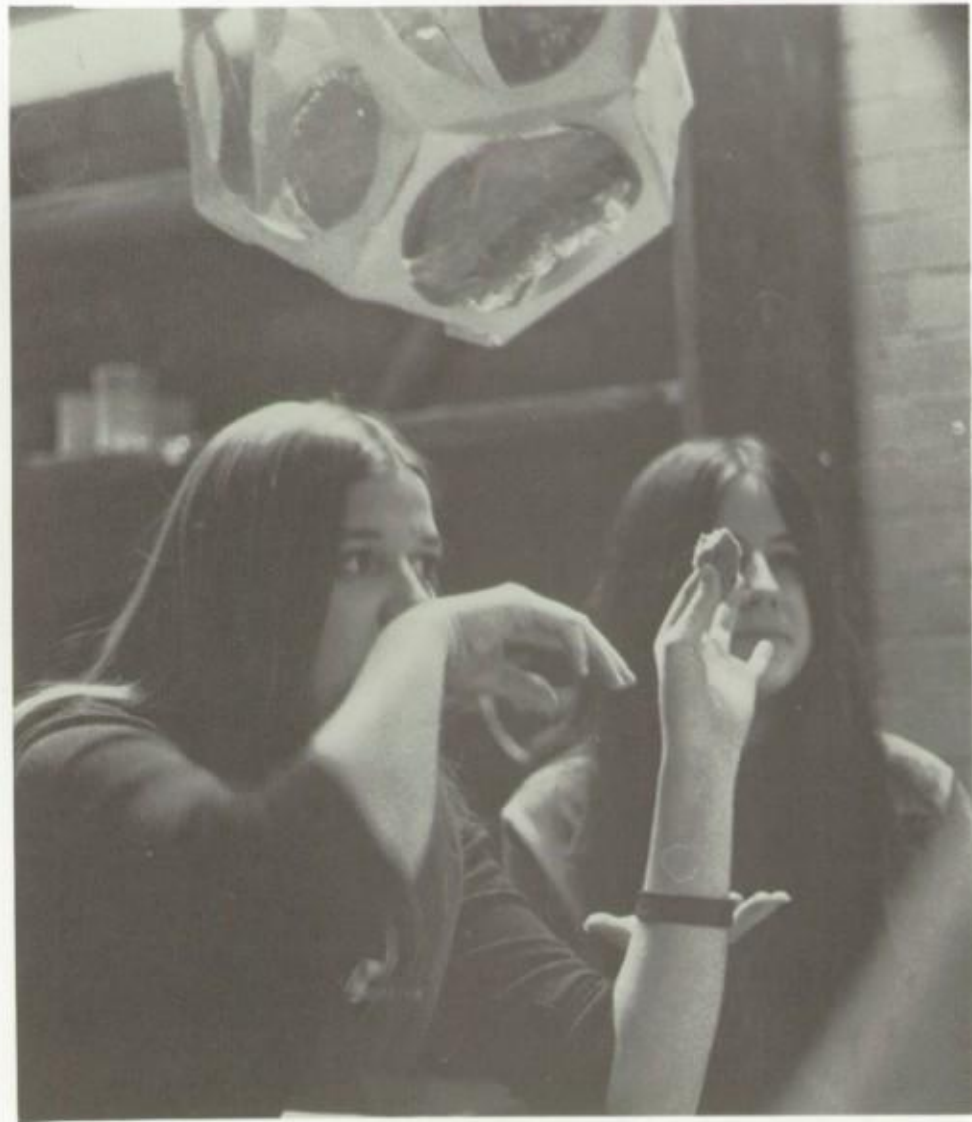

at times
they seem to overshadow all we do.

but don't judge us

only by these weaknesses.

if we are given the chance,

we will succeed.

give us that chance.

don't force us to accept.
your way of thinking.

we must establish
our own standards and values.

ones that can end

senseless hatred and fear,

the clashing

of different backgrounds.

can't take it no more.

the people hating. hurting their brothers.

they don't understand.

they can't understand.

it better end soon my friend.

it better end soon

my friend.

we need the freedom to express
in any way we can.

ourselves

“the look of love
is in your eyes,
a look your smile
can't disguise.”

“the look of love
is on your face,
a look that time
can’t erase.”

“when you dance,
do your senses tingle.
then take a chance?

in a trance, all the lonely mingle with circumstance.”

—neil young

we proved that it is possible

for us
to work together

and have fun.

“lookin’ for fun

and feelin’ groovy”

—paul simon

kiss me kate

“we’ll build a world
of our own

that no one else can share.

all our sorrows
we'll leave far behind us there.
and i know you will find,

there'll be
peace of mind,
when we live
in a world of our own."

we exist
merely as numbers,

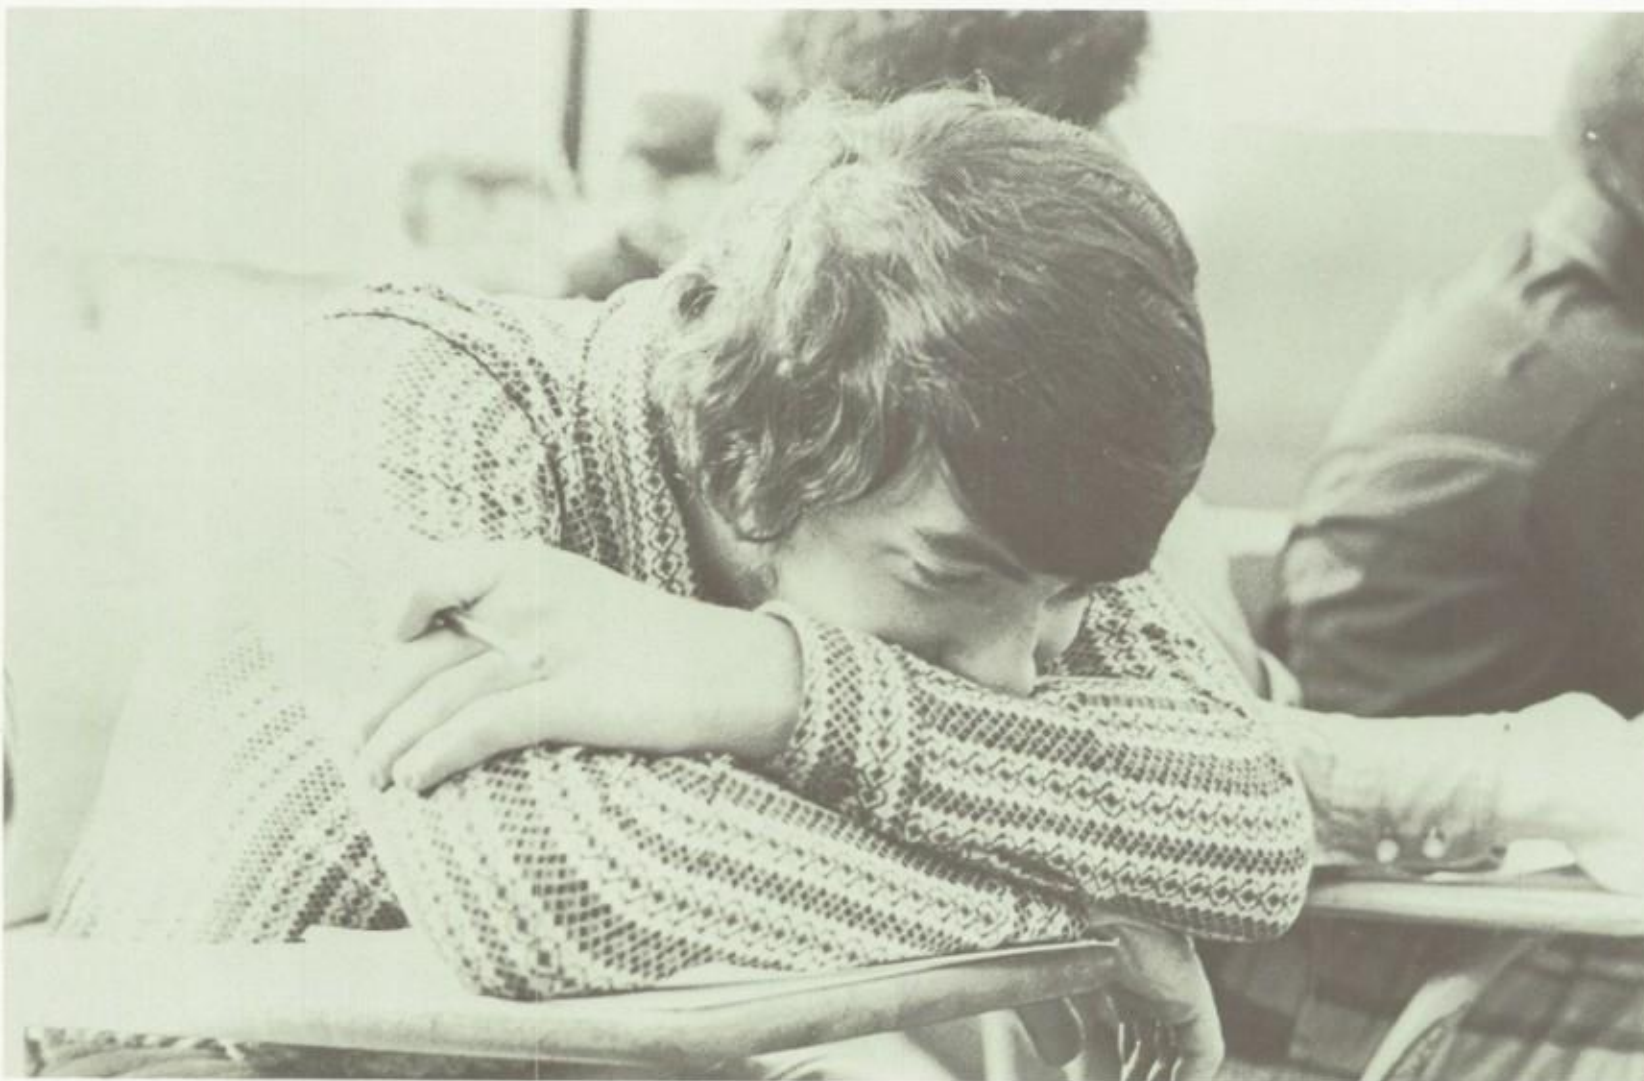

following the daily routine
of crowded halls,

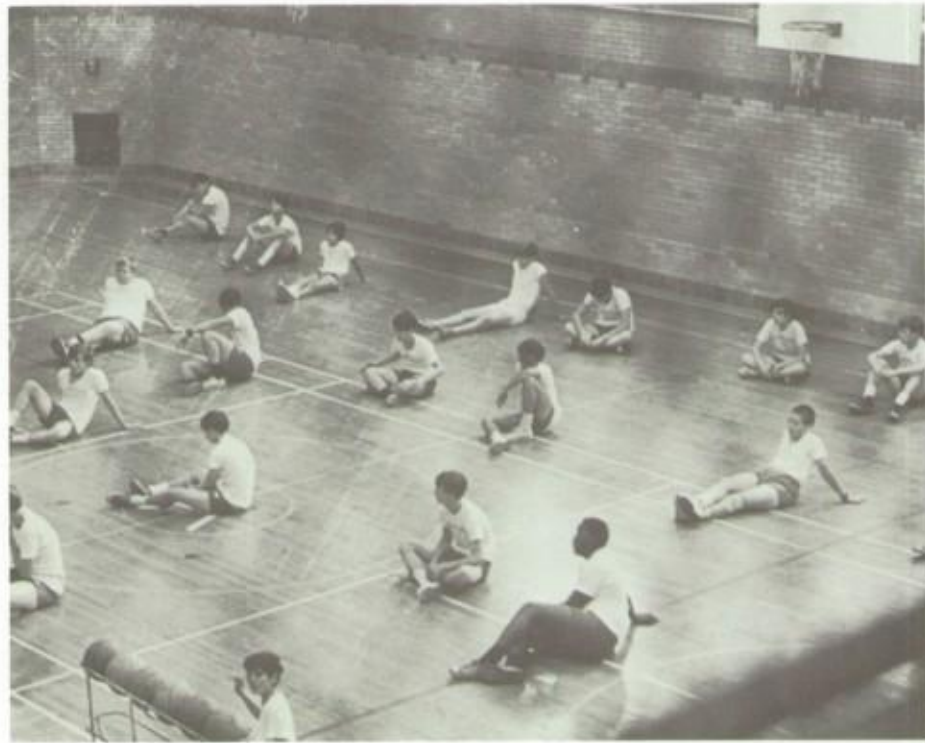

classes, and boredom.

confined

by regulations and requirements,

we feel stifled.

our frustration leads to disinterest,

and eventually apathy.

impatience grows
and we long for escape.

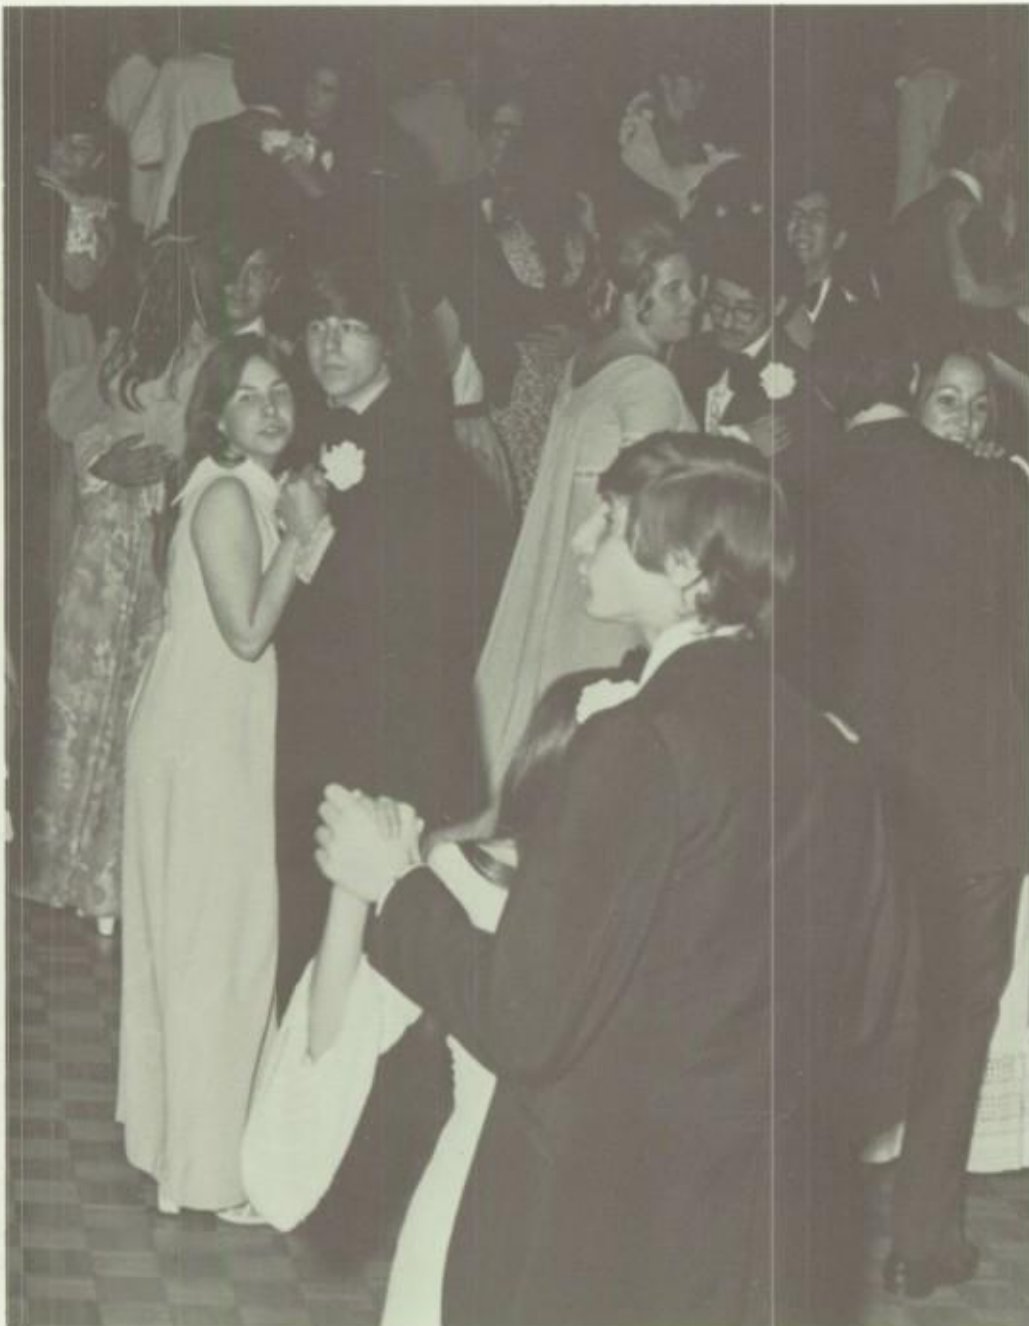

tonight with words
unspoken you say
that i'm the only
one.

but will my heart
be broken when
the night meets
the morning sun?

gerry goffin and carole king

time can pass so quickly.

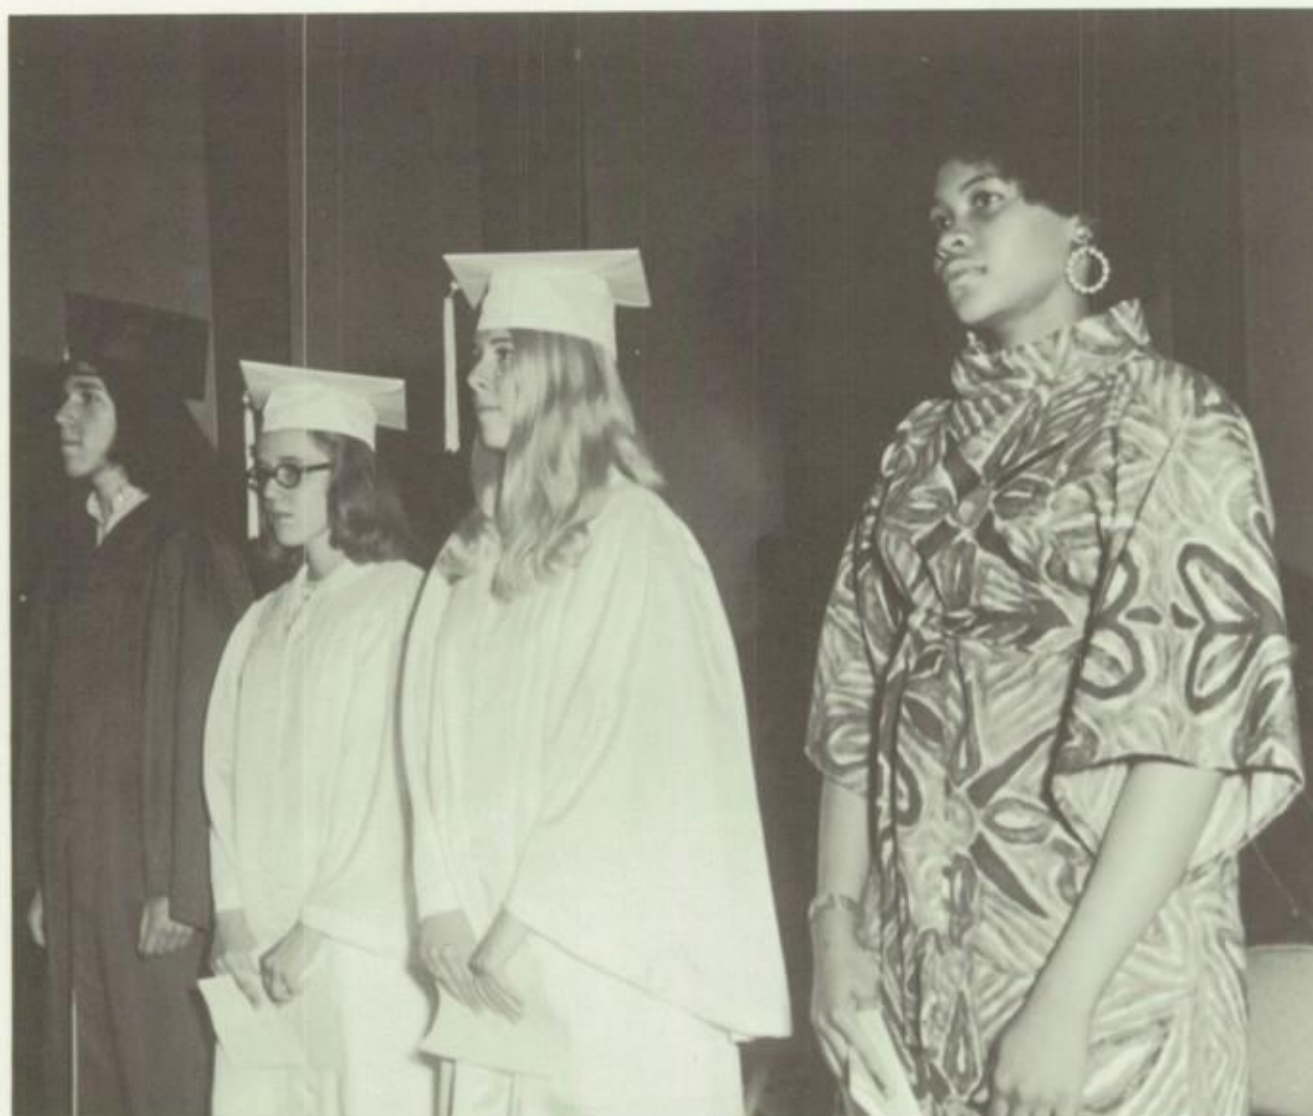

and suddenly

the sun
rises.

we are disappointed,

but we tried.

we have a lot of good memories.

A sepia-toned photograph of a roller coaster. The image is taken from a low angle, looking up at the tracks. The tracks are dark and silhouetted against a light, hazy sky. The roller coaster car is visible on the tracks, moving upwards. The overall mood is nostalgic and dramatic.

fresh as an april morning,
soft as a tulip's tongue,
clear as the gleam
of a mountain stream
that's what it is to be young.
warm as a summer sunrise,
sweet as an evening breeze,
pure as a note
from a song-bird's throat,
rich as the green of the trees.
strong as the bite
of a frosty night,
bold as a big brass band.
keen as a bean,
or a young sardine,
not very keen to be canned.
bright as a newborn bluebell,
new as a song unsung,
free as the breeze,
of the seven seas,
that's what it is to be young.

POLICE FORUM

Beginning with the very next issue of the FOREWORD, we will present regularly an exclusive feature that has taken a good deal of effort to arrange. Inspector Robert P. Henzler, the head of the Pittsburgh Police Youth Squad, has graciously consented to answer any and all police-related questions that the Allderdice student body might raise. He personally will answer any queries that fall into his specialized field of work, and will refer other questions (for example those pertaining to specialized departments such as drugs or internal affairs) to members of

Evaluation: What It Means

If you've noticed the clean and lighted hallways, mended windows, and generally tighter security that Allderdice has enjoyed this week, perhaps you shrugged it off as spring cleaning and forgot about it. Actually, our school was spit-and-polished for the Middle States Association of Secondary Schools Committee who were evaluating us this past week.

When last evaluated in 1961, Allderdice was fully accredited and commended. This year, despite opinions to the contrary, Allderdice stands an excellent chance of again receiving full accreditation. Our excellent faculty and the drive of the student body have made all areas of the curriculum outstanding. Besides this, Allderdice boasts an outstanding assortment of extra-

Who Was Taylor Allderdice?

By SHARON CITRON

Taylor Allderdice, born a native of Philadelphia in 1863, began his career as a $4.00 a week bank messenger. From there, he traveled to the steel mills of Pittsburgh, where he began his rise from an assistant rail driller to the levels of roller, foreman,

Foreword Editor Selected for TV Post

Congratulations are in order for Mr. Harvey Leven, page two editor of the FOREWORD. Harv was selected from many applicants in this school for the position of Journalist Assistant at KDKA-TV news, which he will fill for an average of 28 hours a week with pay during the month of November. As a Journalist Assistant, Harvey will be directly exposed to all areas of television journalism, having a chance to write the news as well as accompanying camera crews to the scene of major events. Mr. Leven will also get experience behind the scenes editing and sorting film for the famous Pittsburgh Eyewitness News Team.

Harvey's alternate for the post is Miss Margery Good, who deserves equal congratulations. The two were selected by Messrs. Shnupp, Semans, and Thompson, and Mrs. Mussoff, on the basis of ability in journalism and interest in the news.

Harvey, we might add, won the "Best Column" award in the Duquesne University Scholastic Press Association awards last year for his "From Within" series in the FOREWORD.

THANKS . . . are due the young lady who did the lovely masthead which graces the top of this page, Miss Arlene Wanetick.

to the senior class of 1971:

“no man is an island,
entire of itself;
every man is a piece of the continent
a part of the main;

.....
any man's death diminishes me because i am involved in mankind;
and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls;
it tolls for thee”

we demanded

to be on our own.

but now,

confronted with unlimited
opportunities,

we are confused.

while searching for our individuality,
we may falter;

however we will recover

and begin again.

hang on to your hopes, my friend.
that's an easy thing to say,
but if your hopes should pass away
. . . you can build them again.

look around,
the grass is high,
the fields are ripe,
it's the springtime of our lives.

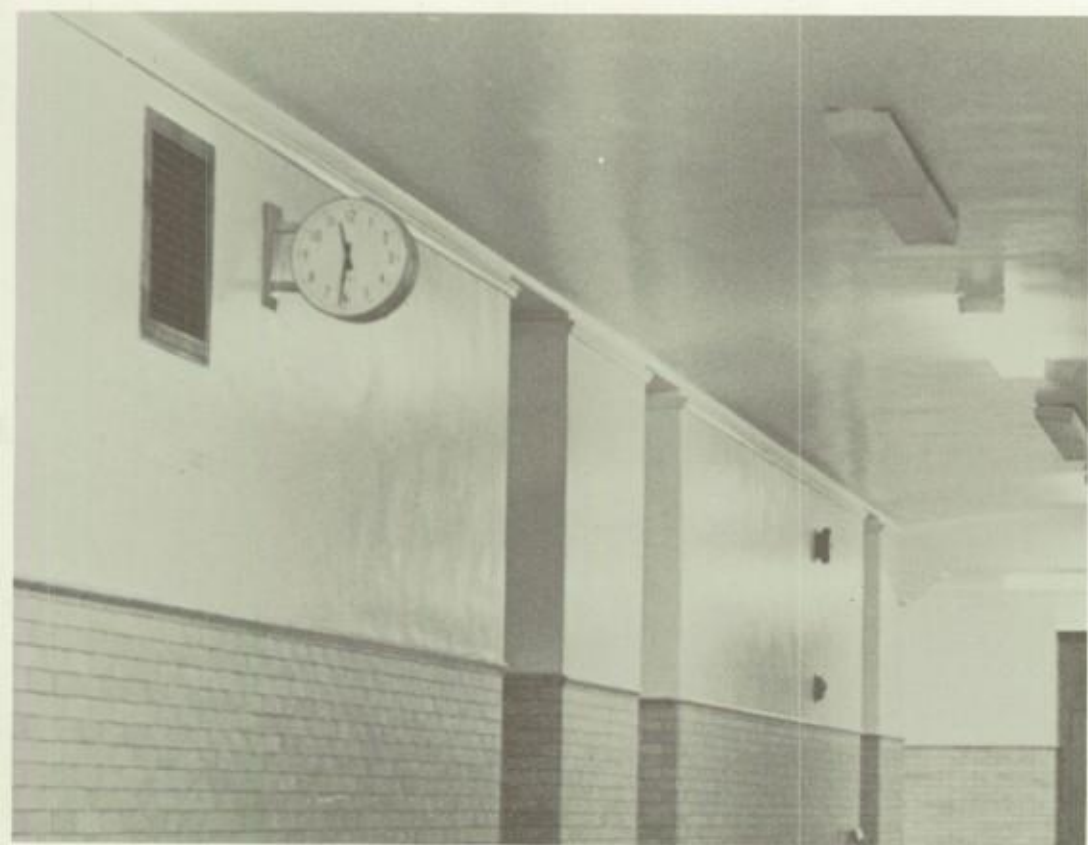

—paul simon—

and now we leave allderdice

where we were sheltered and discontented.

there is no going back.

the future of the earth
is in our hands.

how shall we decide?
